Dear Sarah:

Mary Green has let me know that we do have funds to offer the Lucile Elliott Scholarship this summer.

Since time is short, I propose to run off on ditto machine copies of the enclosed announcement and application form and mail them to Pearl Von Allman, as secretary of association, for distribution. The forms differ from last year's only in the date. Please let me know if this meets with your approval. I have checked with Marianna Long, the other member of our committee, and this is agreeable with her. I will make any additions or deletions you suggest.

I left the next to last paragraph on the announcement sheet unfinished as we must settle on a terminal date. If possible, we should avoid making a duplicate award as we did last year. As you probably remember, the award winner received another scholarship and graciously stepped aside in favor of an alternate. So far as I know, we have no rule against making a duplicate award; but, we could avoid it by setting our date later than the date of awards made by the A.A.L.L. Scholarship Committee. I see by the last Law Library Journal that you are a member of the A.A.L.L. Scholarship Committee, so perhaps you could tell me the award date and we could set our deadline for a week later.

My first thought was to suggest that all applications should be received by April 29, 1967. Perhaps, we can allow a little more time, as judging should not take us more than ten days.

Cordially,

Kathleen Cheape
